

save my veins

A vascular access initiative by the Ontario Renal Network that supports patients with chronic kidney disease.

Saving arm veins is important for the creation of a fistula or graft in patients who may receive or are currently receiving hemodialysis therapy.

